 - d. B.Sc. 3rd Semester (Old Course)
 - e. B.Sc. 5th Semester (Old Course)
 - f. M.Sc. 1st Semester
 - g. M.Sc. 3rd Semester
2. The fees to be paid are:
 - a. centre fee ₹ 500/-
 - b. theory examination fee ₹ 150 per paper
 - c. practical examination fee ₹ 200 per paper
 - d. admission card fee ₹ 50/-
 - e. mark sheet fee ₹ 100 per semester
3. The centre fee and admission card fee are charged only once even if a student applies papers in more than one semesters. Further, a student who has paid the centre fee while applying as a repeater need not pay the same again in the event of him/her applying as a regular in ESE May 2018. For this, the applicant is required to retain the student copy of the fee deposit slip and should be able to produce it on demand.

Arrear papers

- A candidate who has appeared in a previous examination conducted by the college and has not cleared a paper in the above examinations is eligible to apply for the same.
- Admission card (copy) and mark sheet (original) of the examination in which the paper was held must be submitted along with the application.

Improvement of performance

- A successful regular candidate of ESE November 2017 desirous of improving his/her performance in any theory paper is eligible to apply for the examination.
- Admission card (copy) and mark sheet (original) of the examination in which the paper was held must be submitted along with the application.
- As per the exam rules and regulation, the upcoming ESE November 2018 is the only chance for improvement of performance for students who appeared as regular candidates in ESE November 2017.
- There is no provision for improvement of performance for a candidate who cleared the paper as a repeater.
- There is no provision for improvement of performance in a non-theory paper.

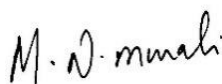

ATTENTION: BA/BSc (CBCS) and MSc students

- As per the examination rules and regulations, a student can appear in a paper for a maximum 3 examinations. That means, only two chances for appearing examinations of an arrear paper are permissible and must be within 2 (two) years of the student's first ESE appearance in that paper. Consequently,
 - a. ESE November 2018 is the last BA/BSc 1st Semester examination for students who first appeared BA/BSc 1st Semester examination during ESE November 2016.
 - b. ESE November 2018 is the last MSc 1st Semester examination for students who first appeared MSc 1st Semester examination during ESE November 2016.
- If a student cannot clear any paper after 3 appearances or within 2 (two) years of the student's first ESE appearance in that paper, he/she fails the BA/BSc programme automatically.
- Once the application is accepted, admission card will be issued, and the applicant is deemed to have appeared the papers applied for regardless of whether he/she collects the admission card or whether he/she is present on the day of the examination.

The last date of submission of forms without late fee is 03 October 2018. After the last date, forms will be accepted with an additional late fee of ₹ 500/- (Rupees five hundred only).

No application will be entertained after the notice for issue of admission cards is published.
